

Zeloptyia Award Candidate Guidelines

Zelotypia= fanatical enthusiasm and advocating a cause or carrying out an enterprise.

Members, who in have in the course of their membership (not just during one year):

- Demonstrated unflinching devotion to this organization by volunteering talents and leadership ability
- Has led by example and seeks the talents of others within the organization
- Has led others with fairness and diplomacy and accepts the growing diversity of this organization
- Openly credits others for their creative talents and contributions
- Individually volunteers and contributes through community involvement, and supports our charitable endeavors
- Exhibits enthusiasm, spirit and dedication given freely without thought of a personal agenda or reward
- Continues the vision of the founders and helps the organization to grow
- Believes in all the many facets of this organization and is supportive of all parts of its program of work
- Recognizes that change can be good but upholds and know the founding traditions of the Krewe
- recognizes that change and growth should occur in order for this organization is to continue to thrive and not be static
- Recognizes that the Z Krewe by laws are the ground rule sof this organization and strives to make sure that these rules are upheld and when needed adjusted to fit the needs of an ever changing and evolving organization
- Allows others the chance to lead too and is willing to be a follower, but can mentor to the new leadership with respect
- Allows the membership at large to have a say in this organization's future and is not easily swayed by factions that form
- Is willing to take a risk to lead Z Krewe to a higher and stronger level of doing business
- Strives for excellence in all activities and is creative and will not accept less that going first class
- Knows that finances and resources are our only limits

- Truly understands that our mission and purpose is “ to perpetuate the spirit of Maredi Gras”
- Has been heard saying “Just imagine!”

So with the above in mind, look for strong candidates! Remember that founders and prior Zelotypia Award recipients are not eligible to receive these awards. WE are already Zelotypians!

Founders: Jim and Nancy Manlove, John and Chris Moen,
Joe and Donna Bumpas, Tom and Joyce Aiken